CODE/ORDINANCE

(Using SORNA (Federal Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act) Compliant Template Language)

Legislative History

The Office of Sex Offender Sentencing, Monitoring, Apprehending, Registering and Tracking (SMART) provided the Summit Lake Paiute Council with a Model Tribal Sex Offender Registry Code complying with the federal Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (SORNA) (Title I of Public Law 109-248). The Model Code was intended to serve only as a template, and to provide information that each tribe should consider as it determines how to comply with SORNA. Tribes need not pass this code/ordinance in order to comply with SORNA, however, amendments to the Adam Walsh Child Protection Act did require the Council to adopt a Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act compliant Code or the State of Nevada would have been allowed to exercise jurisdiction on the Summit Lake Reservation. The Model Code did state what is required for compliance with SORNA.

Assisting the SMART Office in developing the Model Code were Indian lawyers, tribal attorneys, and Indian Country technical assistance providers who contributed significantly to the creation of this document. Those individuals are as follows:

Joshua J. Breedlove, Staff Attorney for the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians

Sarah Brubaker, Prosecutor for the Grand Traverse Band of Ottawa and Chippewa Indians

Virginia Davis, Associate Counsel for the National Congress of American Indians

Sarah Deer, Professor, William Mitchell School of Law

M. Brent Leonhard, Deputy Attorney General for the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation

Pablo H. Padilla, Attorney with the Nordhaus Law Firm, LLP

Michelle Rivard, Associate Director, Tribal Judicial Institute, University of North Dakota School of Law

Hallie Bonger White, Attorney and Executive Director for the Southwest Center for Law and Policy

Maureen White Eagle, Attorney with the Tribal Law and Policy Institute

From 2007 to the date of the Summit Lake Paiute Council's adoption of this Sex Offender Registration Code were Council Members: Warner Barlese, Ernie Barlese, Jerri Lynn Barlese, and Lee Townsend, Jerry Barr, and Randi DeSoto. Ernie and Jerri Lynn Barlese attended every training offered by the U.S. Department of Justice across the United States, and Acting Chief Administrative Employee Ron Johnny attended the Las Vegas training, to ensure that the State of Nevada could not exercise jurisdiction granted them if the Council failed to act in adopting this Code. See Resolutions SL-15-2007 (July 21, 2007) and SL-07-2010 (March 20, 2010) (available on the Minutes/Resolutions Page of the Tribe's Environmental Protection Department web site (www.summitlaketribe.org)).

CHAPTER 1 GENERAL MATTERS

SECTION 1.01 TITLE

This Code shall be known as the Summit Lake Paiute Tribe Sex Offender Registration Code.

SECTION 1.02 PURPOSE

The intent of this code is to implement the federal Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (SORNA) (Title I of Public Law 109-248) and shall be interpreted liberally to comply with the terms and conditions of SORNA as presently written or hereafter amended.

SECTION 1.03 NEED

Violent crime in Indian Country is more than twice the national average. On some reservations it is twenty times the national average. An astounding thirty percent of Indian and Alaska Native women will be raped in their lifetimes. Tribes are disproportionately affected by violent crime and sex offenses in particular from both Indian and non-Indian perpetrators; consequently, the conduct and presence of convicted sex offenders in Indian Country threatens the political integrity, economic security, health and welfare of tribal nations even to the point of imperiling the subsistence of tribal communities. The Summit Lake Reservation has little or no crime statistics each year, however, hundreds if not thousands of non-members use Reservation roads, including in 2008 more than 1,800 hunters licensed by the State of Nevada and others. The Tribe observes on the sex offender web sites for the States of Nevada, California and Oregon that quite a few members of other neighboring Tribes are registered as sex offenders. Ease of travel to the Summit Lake Reservation is easier in this 21st Century than it was in earlier Centuries. It is also easier for registered sex offenders to travel, and without a constant presence of law enforcement, easier for off-reservation criminals to commit crimes on the Reservation before it can be detected. As the population of the Reservation increases the chance of interaction between female and minor tribal members with convicted sex offenders who are non-Indian and Indian increases. Because of amendments to the federal Adam Walsh Child Protection Act, the State of Nevada would have been able to exercise jurisdiction over members and other Indians despite Nevada law (N.R.S. 41-430(4)) declaring that the State lacks jurisdiction in Indian Country like the Summit Lake Reservation unless the governing body of the Tribe agrees. While the governing body of this Tribe has never interfered with the State exercising jurisdiction over non-members in criminal matters, the Council has asserted complete civil jurisdiction of the Reservation and complete criminal jurisdiction, except that concurrent in the federal government over members and Indians on the Reservation.

SECTION 1.04 CREATION OF REGISTRIES

- A. Sex Offender Registry. There is hereby established a sex offender registry, which the Acting Administrator, until a Registrar can be employed, shall maintain and operate pursuant to the provisions of this code, as amended.
- B. Public Sex Offender Registry Website. There is hereby established a public sex offender registry website, which the Acting Administrator shall maintain and operate pursuant to the provisions of this code, as amended.
